

Dragomir Dimitrijević was born on September 12, 1979. in Vranje, where he finished primary and secondary economics school with great success. He start studding the Faculty of Economics at the University of Kragujevac in 1998, where he graduated during 2002. He completed his postgraduate studies at the Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade, defending his thesis under the title "Harmonization of Financial Reporting" 14.07.2008. The doctoral dissertation titled "Forensic Accounting: A Means of Protection of the Quality of Financial Reporting" he is defended on 28.02.2014. at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac.

He is employed at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac from 15.07.2003., where he was elected to Assistant Professor on 15.07.2014. As author and co-author he published a number of papers and participated in many scientific projects and educations. Areas of his scientific interest are Financial Reporting, Frauds in Business, and Forensic Accounting.