

Ana (Nenad) Krstic was born on September 23, 1990 in Kragujevac where she had finished elementary school and the First Grammar School, as the holder of the "Vuk Karadzic" diploma. Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac she enrolled in 2009/2010. Undergraduate academic studies of the Business Economics and Management, Management Module, ended in 2013, with an average grade of 9.50. Master Studies of the Electronic Commerce at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac, as well, completed with an average grade of 9.80. She defended her Master thesis titled Multicriterial Analysis in Management - Integrated Application of the DEA and AHP Methods, with honors in 2015. Since October 2015, she is PhD student of the Economics Study Programme at the Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade.

During her studies, she has been awarded several times by the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac, the Fund "Academician Dragoslav Srejsović" and the Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development.

Starting from October 1, 2014, she is employed at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac, as a teaching assistant, carrying out exercises on the courses Operational Research, Financial and Actuarial Mathematics and Quality Management. On the first October 2016, she was elected as the assistant for the major scientific field Statistics and Informatics, subject Operational Research. She also teaches Financial and Actuarial Mathematics.

She is the secretary of the Center for Economic Research at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac and participant in the project of the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac, "Economic Aspects of European Integration - Experiences and Perspectives of the Republic of Serbia".

She speaks English. In her papers she uses the MS Office package, IBM SPSS, Eviews Software, STATA (Data Analysis and Statistical Software).