

STEFAN VRŽINA

BIOGRAPHY

(December 1st, 2018)

Stefan Vržina was born on May 11th, 1993 in Zaječar. He finished secondary School of Economics and Trade in Paraćin (financial administration module) as Vuk Karadžić diploma holder and student of generation. During secondary school, he achieved significant results on national competitions in Accounting (second place) and Mathematics (second place). He graduated in 2016 at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac, module Accounting and Business Finance with average grade 10.00.

He obtained his master's degree in 2017 at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac, module Accounting and Business Finance with average grade 10.00. Currently, he is a second-year PhD candidate at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac (current average grade: 10.00).

During bachelor and master studies, he was awarded by Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development and Fund for Youth Talents of the Republic of Serbia. In addition, he was awarded four times by Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac for achieved results during studies.

He started his academic career at the Faculty of Economics in January 2017 as Demonstrator for the course Business Finance (bachelor studies). From July 2018, he is Research Trainee for the courses Business Finance (bachelor studies) and Financial Restructuring (master studies).

He is involved in projects of Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development during current project cycle. He uses English language and professional application softwares (statistical softwares SPSS, EViews and accounting softwares). He is author of several scientific and professional articles, published in journals or presented at international conferences.